

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1858.

The result of this State—The telegraphic reports of the result of our State election are discouraging, and would indicate an almost entire Democratic defeat. We are disposed to wait further accounts before we "give up the ship," as we know by experience that the first telegraphic reports are uniformly less favorable to the Democrats than the official returns. The State Sentinel, inclines to the opinion that Niblack, (dem.), is elected to Congress in the First District, and Hughes in the Third, although the reports assert the contrary. English is certainly re-elected in the Second District. Holman, (dem.), has 1,600 majority in the Fourth. In the Fifth Kilgore (rep.) has 2,500 majority. This is as good as a falling off of 6,000 votes in the third "burnt" district—which is favorable to the election of the Democratic State Ticket. The Sixth (Indianapolis) district, elects Porter, a renegade Democrat, by 900 majority. In the Seventh Davis, independent, is elected by 2,000. In the Eighth, Wilson, (rep.) has about 500. Coffax, (rep.) carries the Ninth by 1,200 to 1,500. In the Tenth, Case, (rep.) has 1,400 to 1,500 majority. In the Eleventh, Coffroth, after a gallant fight, is only beat about 300 by Pettit, (rep.).

We have received but little news in regard to the State Ticket. The State Sentinel says the probabilities are that the Democratic State Ticket is elected; and also the Legislature will probably be Democratic. We hope the result may prove this belief to be well founded, and if the other parts of the State have done as well as we have in this region there can be no doubt the Legislature will go Democratic. We give a list of those elected in this and the neighboring counties, which is certainly encouraging, and shows a gain of two Rep's and one Senator.

SENATORS.

Whitely & Huntington—J. R. Slack, dem.

REPRESENTATIVES.
Allen—S. Wheeler, N. McLean, dems.

Allen County Election!

We give, in another column the official vote of Allen County, from our Extra of Thursday, by which it will be seen that Allen has nobly maintained her glorious reputation, and remains the Banner County of the State. The full official report of the vote, by township, for each of the offices as created the greatest interest, will also be found in another column, which will be valuable for future reference. We give the State Ticket, 111 maj.; Dawson 758 for Congress; elect a Democratic Senator and two Representatives, and the entire County Ticket by majorities ranging from 331 to 1808. If any other county can equal this, we are willing to yield our claim to the banner. The majority, though large, is not equal to that given to Buchanan in 1856, but the falling off may easily be accounted for by the fact that in that year there were several hundred of Democratic railroad laborers at work within our limits, who are now elsewhere employed, & who have been succeeded by a large force of mechanics in the railroad shops, who have mostly voted against us. The changes in the resident population, if any, have been rather in our favor.

This has been the most fiercely contested election we have ever had in this county; and no pains were spared, nor any means however vile, left untaken, to break down and divide the Democratic party. A wholesale system of lying was engaged in, disaffected and disappointed Democrats were encouraged to run in opposition to regular candidates, our tickets were counterfeited, and voters swindled out of their votes by having bogus tickets palmed off on them as genuine; but all would not do. We have come forth from the fire unscathed, while our opponents are overwhelmed with confusion and mortification.

The great effort was directed against Mr. Fleming, our candidate for Sheriff, against whom the most outrageous falsehoods were promulgated; but the people have given the lie to the charges made against him, and re-elected him with a glorious majority of 1,064. No lies were spared against Mr. Hamilton, and though they were abundantly refuted, still they were repeated and stuck to with a tenacity that had the effect of depriving him of the votes of some Democrats; but his majority nevertheless runs up to the handsome sum of 699. Nelson had two candidates to run against—one of whom, Drake, got the full Republican vote, while the other, Edsall, received 270 votes, mostly Democratic; but in spite of this, Nelson's majority for Clerk over Drake amounts to 830, and over both to 580.

Mr. Dawson's majority for Congress is less than we had anticipated, and less than, it ought to have been; but when everything is taken into consideration, it is not perhaps to be wondered at. His being brother to the editor of the Times, & K. N. paper, was against him with much effect among the naturalized citizens; while the soreheads, blacklegs, and anti-regulators, all united with the Republicans in a determined opposition to him—and the only wonder is, with such a force and combined opposition, that he received the heavy vote he did. He was nobly sustained by the mass of the Democratic party, and has reason to feel proud of the efforts made in his behalf in this county.

The result of the election is most glorious, and will result in much future good to the Democratic party. It will serve to show a few mischievous and selfish men who unfortunately have been hanging to the skirts of the Democratic party, that though tolerated, they are not of the importance they had imagined, and when they choose to leave the party, or act in opposition to it, they do not necessarily break it down or even drag many of its members with them. They have fully tried the experiment, and the result only shows their utter weakness and insignificance; their success has been by no means flattering to their vanity, but their fate may serve as a warning to others not to attempt the same folly. They have now placed themselves outside the Democratic ranks, and can no more claim membership; they are rid of so many traitors and spies in our camp, and their power for mischief is at an end. They have found their proper level in the opposition, and all we have to ask of them, is that they will never again call themselves Democrats, nor presume under any circumstances to vote the Democratic Ticket. The Democrats wish no fellowship with them, and we are perfectly willing to leave them in undisturbed possession of the honors they have achieved in transferring themselves to the Republican party.

Another Barn Burnt.—On Sunday morning last, at an early hour, an old barn, on a lot near Ewing's warehouse, was set on fire and consumed. There is still no clue to the incendiaries.

Tenth Congressional District.

We are not able to give the exact result in this district, but presume Case's majority will be 1400 to 1500. The following are the reported majorities:

Case.	Dawson.
Allen	200
Niblack	527
Whitely	90
DeKalk	110
Elkhart	320
Stauben	600
Legrange	780
	2427
	958
	1469

Those marked (*) are official; the others are merely reports, and may not be exactly correct. We have no definite accounts for Judges of the 10th Circuit: the vote is close, with the probability that Wilson rep. is elected over Carson by 100 to 200 majority.

In Kosciusko Co., Case's majority is 527; Wilson's for Judge, 503; Rep. State Ticket 508. Wirtley Co.—Dem. State Ticket 156 maj.; Dawson 99; Carson, for Judge 119; Slack Senate, 99; Firestone, Rep. 56. The entire Dem. County Ticket, except Sheriff, elected.

Noble Co. is reported 240 for Case; 130 for Wilson. The Dem. State Ticket has a small majority, and dem. Representative and Co. Ticket, except Sheriff, elected.

Wells Co. gives 212 Democratic majority; Coffroth, Congress 178; Stubbaker, Senate 176; Shultz, Representative, 101; Wilson, rep. who resides in Wells Co. gets 51 majority for Judge.

Huntington Co. gave Coffroth 175 maj.; Slack, Senate, 70; Firestone, Representative, 60. Dem. State Ticket 50; and elected the entire Democratic county ticket, 9 capt Recorder.

DeKalk gives the following majorities—

Democratic State Ticket	95
Dawson, Congress	110
Carson, Judge	111
Schell, Pros. Attorney	101
Waterman, Representative	165
Ralston, Sheriff	89
Allenburg, Surveyor	86
Commissioner, vote, each	1087

The Unkindness of all.—The Republican got out an Extra on Thursday night and embellished it with the bogus Buck's Head used in counterfeiting our tickets, turned upside down—typical of the prostrate condition of the counterfeiter after the election. This was decidedly cruel and unchristian on the part of our friend Peter. The counterfeiter candidates doubtless felt their horizontal position hard enough without being held up to the public gaze by a professed friend, and one too who had aided and abetted their schemes of villainy as long as he had any hopes of profiting by them. Republicans are said to be ungrateful, and the same charge evidently attaches to Republicans—at least in Allen Co.

Pennsylvania Election.

Pennsylvania has gone astray, and the Democrats, divided into Douglas-men and Buchanan-men have enacted the E. Kennedy case to perfection, leaving the Republicans almost a clear course. We have not yet the full particulars, but enough to show that there is nothing left of either of the cats but the tip of the tail, while the Republicans have elected a large majority of the Congressmen and Legislature. We expect to see the Republican editor go into convulsion fits over this unexpected event. Republican Victories have been so rare that we cannot blame him for becoming excited when they do happen. The Lecroon matter we have supposed settled, and it is looked upon as a dead issue; but the Pennsylvanians are proverbially a slow people, and probably have not fully realized the fact. In quarrelling over their dead issue they have entirely overlooked living matters. We hope they may awake from this folly, and get their eyes open in time for the next Presidential election.

OHIO ELECTION.—The Republicans "Know Nothings, and all other fags and ends of fashions succeeded in fusing in Ohio, and have carried the state by probably 15,000 majority over the Democrats. In 1856 the se separate vote of Fremont and Fillmore exceeded Buchanan's by 45,000; this year the united vote of the two parties only beats us about one-third as much, so we do not see there is much to complain of in Ohio, although we will confess we had hoped for more. The Legislature of course will be Republican, and a majority of 4 or 5 in the Congressional delegation, same as it is at present. The notorious Lewis Campbell has been defeated in the Butler district by Vallandigham, (dem.). The Cincinnati Enquirer claims the election of the following eight Democrats to Congress:

First District—George H. Pendleton.
Third District—C. L. Vallandigham.
Fourth District—William Allen, (probably).
Sixth District—William Howard.
Ninth District—Judge Hall.
Eleventh District—C. D. Martin.
Twelfth District—S. S. Cox.
Fifteenth District—Joseph Burns.
Seventeenth District—B. F. Spriggs.

Vitality of the Democratic Party.—The following remarks from the Philadelphia Journal, a neutral paper, are truthful and just, and convey a well merited compliment to the honesty and fixedness of purpose of the Democratic party—the only truly national organization that has survived the mutations of the political elements. However much they may differ on local, personal, or temporary matters, the Democrats will always be found acting together when the great battle for principle is to be fought, and forgetting all minor differences, will rally under the glorious flag which leads to victory. At the present time appearances may be a little unfavorable, but in 1860, when the grand Presidential battle comes off, all dissensions will be healed, and the Democratic party will present a solid phalanx and manfully do battle in defence of their principles, and of the Constitution and the Union.

Whatever other conditions the opposition may count upon in the contest for the Presidency in 1860, we beg them not to build any hopes upon the disorganization of the Democratic party. The divisions which occasionally have disordered its ranks, have never yet proceeded to dissolution. There is a cohesive power holding together the different members of that great and compact political body, which no ostensible dissensions can ever wholly and permanently overcome, and however temporary causes may avail to drive them assunder for a season, yet the strong natural affinity of the parts will eventually reunite them as closely and firmly as if no difference had ever existed between them. All past experience verifies this assertion. The weakness or the abuses of an Administration may cool the ardor of its friends, or even force them into momentary revolt; but time soon rekindles the Democratic spirit, and leads up the battered flag. The first great struggle, either to keep or regain its nationality, calls back every deserter from the party, and restores completely its invincible unity. Whatever the bond may be that so marvelously exists at force that would break it, its strength has been too long and too often proved to justify any expectation that it will fall hereafter. When it seems to be hopelessly broken, it is only relaxed, because the strain of external opposition to their workmen, have been condemned to short terms of imprisonment for having written a letter of friendship to the Court of Chancery.
